Good morning everyone,

I just spoke with Sheila at the New Bern Sun Journal. She had a death in the family last night and has asked us to hold off on picking up the boxes until next week. I will speak with her again on Monday to set up a time to pick up. We will then drop one box off at Mo's. The others will be in storage at Parks and Recreation Admin until we are ready to work on them.

Also,

The proposed new LFL locations should be flagged by noon today.

- Union Point Park (201 E. Front St.)—additional LFL next to the existing one. New LFL to be for children's books.
- Kidsville (Seth West Parrot Park—1225 Pinetree Dr.) adult and children's books
- Pleasant Hill Park—427 NC 55 Hwy W.—adult and children's books
- Stanley White Recreation Center (901 Chapman St.)—indoor adult and children books

Note: The Stanley White Recreation Center site will be an indoor LFL.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Foster Hughes, CPRE

Foster,

Can you reach out to Sheila Meadows at NB Sun Journal and arrange for pickup of ALL of the newspaper boxes? Perhaps we can keep them in your basement for pickup and design work as needed. See below email. Mo (from the Shop Class store) wants to pick one up this week and play around with it at this Saturday's meeting w/ the artists.

Sheila Meadows <sheila.meadows@newbernsj.com>

Thanks for your help on this! P.S. Ran past your house the other day (trying to get back on my running game!). Very pretty! Let us know if you need help with any heavy lifting!

Colleen

Hi Mo,

Might not be a bad idea to have one of the newspaper boxes on site for the Saturday meeting. You could see what you have to deal with. Just a suggestion...

I plan to drop by just to listen to the discussion. If you need something from me, please let me know.

Thanks for getting involved!

Subject: Little Free Library Builders/Artist Meet n' Greet

Hi all,

This email is mainly for the Shop Class Little Free Library (LFL) builders, however I include all so we are on the same page.

Saturday, February 17 at 11:00 AM at 406 Guion Street we will have a meet and greet for the builders and artists. The agenda will mainly include identifying materials needed and build schedule for the LFL's.

Prior to the meeting, I highly recommend that everyone visit the proposed sites:

- a. Union Point Park (201 E. Front St.)—additional LFL next to the existing one. New LFL to be for children's books.
- b. Kidsville (Seth West Parrot Park—1225 Pinetree Dr.) adult and children's books
- c. Pleasant Hill Park—427 NC 55 Hwy W.—adult and children's books
- d. Stanley White Recreation Center (901 Chapman St.)—indoor adult and children books

Note: The Stanley White Recreation Center site will be an indoor LFL.

New Bern Parks & Recreation has agreed to place marker flags to identify possible locations at the sites.

You might also want to visit the three existing LFL's:

- e. Union Point Park—Charter #24177
Maintained by the City of New Bern
Registered stewards: Friends of the Library (New Bern-Craven County)
Mix of adult, young adult and children books.
- f. Epiphany School—Charter #45416
2201 Henderson Ave., New Bern
Primarily books for children up to grade 5
- g. West New Bern Presbyterian Church—Charter #38258
1701 Lucerne Way, New Bern, NC 28560
Separate boxes: one for adults and one for children

And, if that is not enough homework prior to the meeting, I suggest downloading and studying tips on how to build a LFL:

LFL tips for builders: <https://littlefreelibrary.org/wp-content/uploads/2013/07/BuilderTips.pdf>

Thank you all, I am really looking forward to working with everyone on this project.

Mo
